

COHO COMMUNITY NEWS

THANK YOU TO OUR COHO VETERANS

Chief Michael Baldwin has proudly served the Citizens of Hudson Oaks since 2016. Prior to his service to the citizens of Hudson Oaks, Chief Baldwin spent 31 years serving in a multitude of positions with the City of Fort Worth Police Department and the Danville, Illinois Police Department. Chief Baldwin has dedicated himself to a life of public service, but on this occasion, we celebrate him not for what he did for his community, but what he did for his country. Chief Baldwin is a United States Marine Corps Veteran, and today we thank him for his service.

Detective Alan Cardona has proudly served the citizens of Hudson Oaks since 2018. Cardona came to the Hudson Oaks Police Department via The United States Marine Corps, where he honorably served his country. On this Veterans Day, we not only thank him for what he does for the community, we thank him for his sacrifices made while serving in The United States Marine Corps.

Sergeant Christopher Ellingsworth has proudly served the citizens of Hudson Oaks since 2016. Prior to coming to the City of Hudson Oaks Police Department, Ellingsworth served in the United States Army. While in the Army, Ellingsworth selflessly gave his all overseas. Now, he does the same here at home. On this Veterans Day, we not only thank him for what he does for the community, we thank him for his sacrifices made while serving in The United States Army.

Corporal Ryan Roden has proudly served the citizens of Hudson Oaks since 2018. Prior to coming to the City of Hudson Oaks Police Department, Roden served in the United States Army. While in the Army, Roden selflessly gave his all overseas. Now, he does the same here at home. On this Veterans Day, we not only thank him for what he does for the community, we thank him for his sacrifices made while serving in The United States Army.

Officer Caleb Vinson has proudly served the citizens of Hudson Oaks since 2021. Prior to coming to the City of Hudson Oaks Police Department, Vinson served in the United States Army. While in the Army, Vinson selflessly gave his all. Now, he does the same here at home. On this Veterans Day, we not only thank him for what he does for the community, we thank him for his sacrifices made while serving in The United States Army.

Brandon started with the Hudson Oaks Water Department in May of 2023. Prior to Hudson Oaks, he served in The United States Navy. While in the Navy, he learned so many life lessons to get him where he is today. On this Veterans Day, we want to thank him for what he does for the City of Hudson Oaks and thank him for his service in The United States Navy.
